

Pritzker Advises Cancelling Summer Events as Taste of Chicago, Chicago Gourmet Monitor COVID-19 Developments

Plus, a Lakeview restaurant uses coronavirus humor to rip on a Chicago Bears player

by Ashok Selvam@Shokdiesel Apr 10, 2020, 11:08am CDT

<https://chicago.eater.com/2020/4/10/21215341/illinois-summer-events-cancel-taste-chicago-gourmet-festivals-bears-chipmonks-coronavirus-tribisky>

And in other news...

- Two vendors from One Eleven Food Hall in Pullman donated meals to Roseland Community Hospital, a safety-net facility on the South Side. Lexington Betty Smokehouse and Majani's Soulful Vegan Cuisine donated 180 lunches to the hospital's medical staff, according to a food hall spokesperson.
- Hospitalists across the country have been taxed as they treated patients suffering from COVID-19. Newish North Center bistro Cobblestone is also feeding hospital staff — owner Dr. Markus Chwajol (Bohemian House) will deliver free Easter and Passover meals to the ICU at UIC Medical Center (where he works as a neurosurgeon), as well as Chicago police and fire stations through Sunday. He's also offering a free meal to any hungry Chicagoan. Operating on an honor system, he's providing meals up to a $25 value for individuals, a $40 value for two, and a $50 value for families. More details are available on the Cobblestone website.